Re-enrolment Forms: A reminder that ALL FAMILIES need to return their forms by the end of August. You can return via email (newsletter@cottageschool.tas.edu.au) or there is a folder on my desk for hard copies. Ask me if you need a hard copy printed. Thanks, Annette

Fees 2015: Tuition fees will increase in 2015 by the Hobart CPI for the 2013/14 period (which is 2.8%). Fees for 2015 are:

Kinder $1,597.00 per term

Primary $1,689.90 per term

Camp fees $95.00 per camp

Sheep Manure Dig: It was glorious day at Bothwell and we had 21 families present either at Bothwell or at Acton Park to unload. The attendance and enthusiasm was wonderful and the day yielded around 1100 nicely packed and stacked bags which we think is a record for one days activity. A big thank you to all those who helped make this such a successful day and even bigger thank you to John and Di Fowler for allowing us to to extract the manure from under his sharing shed. Andy & Lesley

3/4 Middlies Environment Day (MONDAY): We are heading up to Knocklofty for a walk to the Mt Stuart summit, then around the bushlands. Come prepared for a bush walk with usual gear please and don't forget to bring your OWN LUNCH. We will not be back for cooked lunch on Monday. Tom

Bonjour a tous! As many of you know that on Mondays and Tuesdays I wear a different hat: I work over at Bellerive Primary School. Last week I put up an extensive display about Paris, past and present, for my 10 classes there. I now intend to take the Biggies to look at that display and fill in a worksheet about what they see. We will go on Friday, 29th August from 9 am till 10:30, walking there and back. If any parents would like to join us you would be welcome, otherwise it will be Kath and me taking the group. Meanwhile, the Biggies had a visitor last week, Liz McQuilkin, a poet, who talked to them about her writing. The Biggies were superb, I was so very proud of the way they welcomed Liz, listened so patiently and contributed so much. Bravo Biggies! Kate

Family List: Please find attached an updated Family Contact List. If your details are incorrect can you please let me know? Thanks, Annette
