From Steve: First of all, thank you to everyone for the lack of phone calls. It's not that I don't want to talk to you, it's just that to not have that kind of distraction is a relief given the workload at the moment.

This week we farewellled the old bus. An old bushy who is something akin to Steptoe and Son, bought the bus with the intention of converting it into a camper. The old girl may yet get a new lease of life!

This week we welcomed Trudy Ward to the school. Trudy is undertaking her final teaching practicum through UTAS and has this week acquainted herself with the Biggies students and Kath, as she will be working with the Biggies in Term 4.

Now might be a good time to start looking for those hats that have been packed away for so long. In Term 4, students and staff will be obliged to wear hats during outside activities in accordance with the Sun Smart Policy.

In this Saturday's Mercury, an advert has been placed for the position of cleaner. Anyone can apply for the position and the selection will be based on the usual principles.

Next Tuesday, two of our entrepreneurial Biggies, Lily and Meg, will be holding their own student fundraising stall after school. Everyone is welcome to browse and purchase their hand-crafted items.

As you know, the 40th Celebration scheduled for Saturday 31 October, is an over 18yrs affair. However, those who are under 18yrs and who would like to be a part of the celebrations could still do so. On the Friday 30th October, there will be a Children's Celebration Day. And from lunchtime onwards the afternoon will be open to all who wish to join us.

A reminder that next Friday at 2:00pm we will be having a poetry and music concert. Everyone is welcome to join us and let's hope that we get some more of this lovely weather on the day.

End of Term Concert: Next Friday is our end of term Poetry and Music Concert. We will be presenting some items relating to our 40 year celebrations. Kate and I would love the children to wear an item representing some of the fashion trends of the last 40 years. We thought a family discussion and some reminiscing might bring forth some ideas. We are not asking for full scale costumes (unless it is easy and available!). We have some items in the dress up cupboard and there are always grandparents or older relatives who may have something. For starters – remember flares, hotpants, blue eye shadow, HUGE earrings, turned up polo collars, leg warmers, platforms, fluoro, afros... Looking forward to seeing you at the concert, Shona.

Jump Start: This Thursday is the last bush dance session at 8.50am. We will tackle the Drongo!

Golden Handshakes: This week's Golden Handshake recipients are : -

- Daisy, Wellington and Leo – for sharing their delicious sushi (made in Choosing) with Hana's Middlies

Fair - Craft Stall: Craft night next Wed from 7pm at Mel's house – love to see you there. Also, does anyone have any malleable wire or any rope (both in good condition) that they no longer need? Many thanks, Mel

Found: Small camera case/belt wallet, Kathmandu brand, dark blue. Please see Mel if you have lost it.

What's On:

Bellerive Junior Soccer Club Inc. - Reminder the BJSC EOY Presentation is on this Saturday - 12 September 2015. Ceremony starts at 9am in the BPS Hall (make sure you're there in time to find/sit with your team) followed by some family fun on the top oval. Remember to wear your soccer uniform - NO FOOTBALL BOOTS PLEASE. Forecast is 18 and fine! See you there.
