Term dates for 2016:

Term 1 – Tuesday 2nd February to Friday 8th April (Easter falls during the term March 25th – 29th)

Term 2 – Wednesday 27th April to Friday 1st July (Please note NEW start date)

Term 3 – Tuesday 19th July to Friday 23rd September

Term 4 – Tuesday 11 October to Thursday 15 December

IMPORTANT! End of Term Afternoon Tea – PLEASE NOTE CHANGE OF DAY! In last week's notice the end of term afternoon tea was advertised as THURSDAY 24th March after school. This date was unsuitable for staff, so there will now be a combined Garden Market and afternoon tea on Wednesday 23rd. This Garden Market will have a produce only focus, with food items being provided at afternoon tea. Looking forward to seeing everyone there.

Golden Handshakes: This week's recipients are:-

Valentino and Stella – for showing resilience and overcoming their fears when walking over the Tasman Bridge on Environment day

Arrigo – for his enthusiasm, energy and effort in all aspects of school life

Layla Nichols – for her patient, persistent and hard work approach to learning

Yvie – For including all class members in games and activities

Grace – for being a mentor and support for younger students

Otto and Bruno – for consistently improving their maths skills by using the maths online site at home

Tasmanian Symphony Orchestra: The TSO have 3 Family Classics Concerts this year. The concerts last about an hour and will be great family entertainment and value at $10.00 for children aged 2-16 and $31.00 per adult. If you subscribe to all 3 Concerts there is 10% discount!

Bookings: www.tso.com.au or 1800 001 190

The concerts are....the famous "Carnival of the Animals" on Wednesday 23rd March 6pm, "Take me to Rio" (the flavour of the year!) on Wednesday 10th August 6pm, and then "The Composer is Dead" (a specially written” whodunit” by renowned children’s author Lemony Snicket) on Thursday 6th October at 6pm. I am sure these concerts will be entertaining and educational, and I would definitely encourage any Cottage School families to attend!
