From Steve: Our focus value at the moment is INTEGRITY

- Integrity is to be trustworthy
- Integrity is to be honest
- Integrity is to show uprightness of character.

Apologies for not having something in last weeks notice. Last Friday I attended professional learning that focused on assessing risk and developing safety plans for children and young people. I found the day to be of great value and certainly have taken away a number of learning's, which I can use to our advantage.

After school last Wednesday, the teachers and myself descended on the Hobart Book Shop to purchase some new classroom books. The result is a beautiful collection of classroom library books, which I know students and adults alike will adore. As soon as they're processed they'll be where they belong, in front of the children.

At the beginning of this week, five candidates for the position of Middlies 1/2 Temporary Teacher were interviewed by a panel consisting of; Tom, Hana, Selendah and myself. The panel will make recommendations to the Committee and candidates informed. Once the successful candidate accepts the position, the community will be notified.

And now it's time for us all to enjoy the Easter break and get those last rays of sun while it's still around. On behalf of all the staff, please keep safe and have a lovely time together.

Golden Handshakes: This week's recipient is:-

- Abigail for being kind and sharing with classmates in Choosing
